List of ANZSCO Occupations in Library and Other Information Services

Consultation round 1, 1 Feb 2023 - 28 Apr 2023

This is the list of ANZSCO Occupations in scope of the focus area 'Library and other information services'.

The focus area broadly covers occupations that require specialised knowledge and skills to:

- develop, maintain, implement and deliver systems for keeping, updating, accessing and preserving records, files, information, historical documents and artefacts
- develop, organise and manage library services such as collections of information, recreational resources and reader information services
- plans and organises the conservation of materials and objects in libraries, archives, museums, art galleries and other institutions
- research and study human behaviour, society and institutions from current and historical perspectives, and verbally render spoken statements, and transcribe text and recorded spoken material from one language into another
- prepare artworks, specimens and artefacts for collections, arrange and construct gallery exhibits
- direct and guide visitors in galleries and museums
- issue, receive and shelve library items and maintain associated records.

The comprehensive review includes occupations recently updated in 2021 and 2022 so that we can apply conceptual consistency across the classification.

Only occupations relevant to the focus area are included. These are listed by their current hierarchical categories in ANZSCO.

This information is from the latest version of ANZSCO, the Australian Update, 2022
