ANZSCO [Preliminary] Proposed Changes

Version 1.0

Updating ANZSCO

Reflecting a modern Australian labour market

Essential Notes

The Australian and New Zealand Statistical Classification of Occupations (ANZSCO) describes all occupations for the Australian and New Zealand labour market.

The ABS has undertaken a comprehensive review of the Australian and New Zealand Standard Classification of Occupations (ANZSCO) to reflect the contemporary labour market and better meet stakeholders' needs. Public consultation rounds were held across 2023, with each round targeting selected occupations grouped by focus area.

Statistics New Zealand (Stats NZ) have elected not to participate in the current review and therefore occupation changes have only been considered in respect of the Australian labour market.

Updates to document

This document has been updated based on stakeholder feedback and further research. Minor updates have been made to a handful of occupations. The format of the document has also been updated to improve usability based on feedback received. A preliminary proposed changes document has been created for each of the 43 focus areas. Focus areas were designed to group occupations for consultation purposes only and will not be present in the classification structure.

The preliminary proposed changes presented do not include the full scope of not elsewhere classified categories (nec). Exclusion statements are incomplete and do not reference specific occupation locations within the classification. Outstanding nec categories, exclusion statements and final tweaks to occupations are currently being finalised in preparation for the release of the draft proposed classification in July on the ABS website. The July release will provide users with an opportunity to provide feedback on the structure of the proposed changes, before finalising the update for release by December 2024. These preliminary proposed changes documents are for information only.

Task lists

ABS recognises the potential of Artificial Intelligence (AI) to enhance our operations and efficiency. To this end, we have employed AI to assist in the creation of initial task lists. However, human experts are responsible for the final content, and AI serves as a tool, not a decision-maker. We value stakeholder input and incorporate it into our editing process placing importance on stakeholder submissions and other relevant research contributions.

About the focus area

The Sports activities focus area covers occupations which require specialised knowledge and skills to:

- organise, control and promote the activities, facilities and resources of a fitness centre, sports centre, or other sporting facility
- direct, instruct and guide individuals or groups in the pursuit of physical fitness and wellbeing, or in outdoor adventure activities such as bungee jumping, fishing and hunting, trekking and whitewater rafting
- coach, train and instruct participants in sports, and officiate at sporting events
- participate in sporting events for monetary gain either as an individual or as a member of a team
- determine risk, offer odds and take bets from customers at betting agencies, over the telephone and on course.

Summary of consultation

Stakeholder feedback highlighted the need to update occupation descriptions within the Sports activities focus area to better reflect industry changes.

Additionally, several existing outdoor adventure guide occupations were retired and consolidated into a single occupation with an expanded scope. Similarly, betting clerk occupations were merged to cover all types of betting clerks, considering their reduced significance in the labour market and the similarity of tasks performed.
