

Submission questions

The following questions seek feedback on how skills are currently reflected in the Australian and New Zealand Standard Classification of Occupations (ANZSCO). A skills problem statement has been provided for consideration (linked under the Related heading).

For the latest version of the classification refer ANZSCO 2021, Australian Update

Please provide the following contact details to assist with follow-up should we require further information about your submission:

1. Name
2. Organisation/Company
3. State or Country (if overseas)
4. Email Address
5. Phone Number

6. How did you find out about the 2022 update of ANZSCO?
 - Direct approach from the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS)
 - Direct approach from another government agency
 - Found information on the ABS website
 - Stakeholder network
 - Personal networks
 - Other (please specify)

7. ANZSCO currently forms occupation groups based on skill, where skill is defined in terms of skill level and skill specialisation. Should ANZSCO's occupation groups continue to be formed based on this definition?
 - If not, what definition should be used?

8. The ABS is aware of at least five key areas where the current reflection of skill in ANZSCO does not meet all requirements of stakeholders.
 - Do you have any comment on these five areas, including examples describing how these issues impact use of the classification?
 - Are there other areas where the current reflection of skill in ANZSCO does not meet your requirements?

9. The Australian Qualification Framework and Australian Skills Classification are national frameworks describing skill. Are you aware of other national frameworks describing skill?
 - If yes, please outline these frameworks and how they are used.

If you have any questions, please email ANZSCO.Maintenance@abs.gov.au
